Harold Schutt, Lindsay, past president of the Tulare County Historical society, will be the principal speaker at the annual Woodville chamber of commerce banquet Saturday evening in the elementary school hall at Woodville. Serving will start promptly at 7:30 p.m.

Carrying out a centennial motif, Mr. Schutt will speak on early history of Woodville and Tulare county. In keeping with the occasion, Woodville residents plan to dress in pioneer costumes for the evening.

A baked ham dinner will be served by the Woodville Civic club; proceeds from the banquet will go into a Woodville Civic Center Inc. fund, being raised toward a civic center building on property already acquired between the Woodville fire station and the Public Utility district office.

Roundup Draws Big Crowds But Expenses Also Big

Porterville's annual Roundup draws big crowds, but expenses in connection with a major show of this kind are also big — so big in fact that last year the show lost money.

In an auditor's report released this week by members of the Orange Belt Saddle club, organization that sponsors the Roundup, it was shown that while total gate receipts ran $7,647.54 in 1951, the federal amusement tax took a $1,274.04 bite while other expenses ran $6,929.12 to put the Saddle club in the red in the amount of $655.62.

Included in the "other expenses" were: Advertising, $1,165.01; telephone and postage $79.59; printing, $46.99; special events, $1,050.00; miscellaneous supplies, $500.10; rodeo stock, $1,450.00; labor, $1,043.97; sign painting, $7.50; purse money, $1,300; miscellaneous (CONTINUED ON PAGE 8)

COURTHOUSE ISSUE TO BE DISCUSSED

The controversial issue of whether or not a new Tulare county courthouse should be built on location of the present courthouse in Visalia, or on new property, also in Visalia, now being purchased by the county board of supervisors, will feature a meeting of the Porterville Farm Bureau center next Monday evening, April 7, 7 p.m. at Gang Sue's Tea garden, in Porterville.

Supervisor Rodgers L. Moore, Porterville, an advocate of the new courthouse site, will speak in favor of the change; Jim Jordan, Visalia, one of the leaders of a move to construct a new courthouse on the present site, will speak in opposition to the plan of the supervisors.

Both speakers will be limited to 15 minutes in their initial presentation, after which a period of rebuttal and questions and answers will be arranged.

Also featured at the "dutch treat" dinner will be Roy R. McLain, second vice president of the California Farm Bureau Federation, who will discuss, "Farm Bureau Today and Tomorrow."

Presiding at the annual dinner meeting of the Porterville Center will be Howard Michaelis, Porterville Center chairman.

HAM AND BACON SHOOT SUNDAY

With competition set on the trap shoot and rifle small-bore range, the affair will start at 10 a.m. Special games and entertainment for the ladies have been arranged and soft drinks and food will be available on the grounds.

Valencias Move On Export Deals

Movement of Valencia oranges is now underway in the southeastern Tulare county area, with export shipments going to the Orient and Europe. "Unusual" weather in March has slowed down the test, consequently shipments are light compared to this date last year. Speed with which tests come up will determine future movement of the crop.

GENE AUTRY COMING TO SPRINGVILLE

Gene Autry, famous motion picture, radio and television western actor and singer, will be in Springville April 19 and 20 to participate in that community's Frontier days celebration and rodeo, it was announced this morning by Monte Gifford, president of the Springville chamber of commerce.

In addition to Autry, Gorgeous George, the wrestler, has also accepted an invitation to attend the celebration, while others in the party from Hollywood will include Monte Hale, Hoot Gibson, Rex Bell and Tom London, who attended the Springville show last year, and Bob Nolan, Eddie and Russ Hayden.

Mr. Gifford said that he received confirmation that these celebrities will be in Springville when he telephoned Hollywood last night. He said that most of them will be present for a western dance the evening of April 19 and that all of them will be at the rodeo, April 20.

Other plans for the Springville celebration are also shaping up. Rodeo grounds on Gill property north of Springville are being put in top shape, with this work being handled by Don Gill, who is also arena director of the rodeo.

Started this week was a rodeo queen contest, with eight girls entered: Nancy Smith, Edwina Lyman, Coleen Rogers, Gloria Swinney, Chere Fink, Sadie Allen, Judy Williams and Shirley Myrick.

Winner of this contest will be officially crowned at the rodeo dance, the evening of April 19, when Billy Lam and his western radio band will provide music for (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

FOUR REGISTERED SUFFOLK EWES RAISING TRIPLETS AT HUGH MONROE RANCH; RAMS BEING GROOMED FOR STATE SALES

It is doubtful that in more than 80 years of sheep raising the Monroe family ever produced a crop of lambs equal, percentage-wise, to the four sets of triplets that four registered Suffolk Ewes are now raising on the Hugh Monroe ranch at Woodville.

Two other Suffolks are raising twins, which makes a total of 16 lambs from six ewes that Mr. Monroe purchased at the dispersal sale of Manzel Ocaltree at Madera. And such production would have attracted attention even in the "old days" when John Buchanan Monroe, father of Hugh Monroe, ran some 10,000 head of range sheep on the plains of southern Tulare county.

Also being groomed for sale at

HUGH MONROE, Woodville, proves that sheep can still be a profitable business in Tulare county, especially if all ewes were like the four above. These four registered Suffolks are all raising triplet lambs, while two others have twin lambs. Lower photo shows a pen of yearling rams that Mr. Monroe will take to the Sacramento and Dixon ram sales this spring. (Farm Tribune photo)

24-Hour Registration Service Set Up
With April 10 the legal deadline for voters to register in order to vote in the June 3 primary election, County Clerk Claude Grant this week announced a 24-hour registration service in Porterville at the state division of forestry headquarters, Harrison and Fourth streets.

Mr. Grant said that deputies have been appointed and the necessary forms placed at the state forestry office, which is open 24 hours a day. He said the service was established in order that persons working in the rural area or on jobs that make it difficult to reach a registration office during business hours, could be served.

Other registrars are located in Porterville at the city hall; at Gibson Stationery store; at Houffs Planing mill and at the Porterville Hardware company. Registrar in Doyle Colony is Ferne Purnell.

Persons desiring to vote in the primary election must register if they failed to vote in both the primary and general election in 1950 or if they have changed their address since voting.

To be eligible to register, a person must be 21 years of age and must have resided in the state one year, in the county 90 days and the precinct 54 days, as of June 3, 1952, according to Mr. Grant.

Persons who were registered prior to 1950 but who lost their registration because of failure to vote should have received cards from the county clerk's office notifying them that they are not now registered, however, Mr. Grant says that if there is any doubt, a registrar's office should be contacted.

Persons desiring to change their party affiliation can do so by merely re-registering.

Primary Election Is Of Special Importance To Southern County Area

Primary election, June 3, will hold more than ordinary importance for residents of southeastern Tulare county, since several important jobs will be filled as a result of this election.

With three candidates cross-filing for congressman from the 14th district (formerly the 10th district) that includes Tulare, Kings and Kern counties, it is possible that this issue will be decided in the primary. Incumbent Tom Werdel, Republican, is up for reelection while two Democrats are in the field — Roy Riales, Tulare, and Harlan Hagen, Hanford, present state assemblyman.

For the position of state assemblyman from the 35th district that includes Tulare and Kings counties, Roscoe Patterson, Visalia, a former Tulare county supervisor, will campaign as a Republican; Mrs. Gertrude Porterfield, former county welfare director, as a Democrat. Both have crossed filed and with only two candidates in the field, the issue will be decided in the primary.

Running for reelection to the Tulare county board of supervisors from the first district that includes Lindsay, Strathmore, Porterville and Springville, is Board Chairman Rodgers L. Moore, who is being opposed by Jacob Pluth, Porterville. This office will be decided in the primary.

Candidates for Porterville Judicial district judge are John L.

Stewart, present justice of the peace at Ducor and Aubrey M. Lumley Jr., present justice of the peace in Porterville. Porterville Municipal Judge Ernest Ridgeway did not file, although he took out nomination papers.

In the Lindsay judicial district, J. W. Wheeler, Lindsay justice of the peace, and Don Baird, present Strathmore justice of the peace, are seeking the office of judge, with both the Porterville and Lindsay elections to be decided in the primary.

For the office of judge of the Pixley judicial district present Justice of the Peace O. W. Bryan will be opposed by M. W. Del Re Jr., incumbent justice of the peace in Tipton, and Carl Metts, incumbent justice of the peace in Alpaugh township.

Deadline for registration in order to vote in the June primary is April 10.

CHICKS UP

Production of baby chicks in California hatcheries in February ran 10,650,000 chicks, 13 per cent more than in February of 1951, according to the California Crop and Livestock Reporting service.

Cattle lice are troublesome in this area during winter and early spring. Methoxychlor is the material recommended to be safe around milking dairy cows. Two pounds of Methoxychlor (50%) in 25 gallons of water.

PATTERSON ENDORSED BY COMMITTEE

Nat O. Bradley, chairman of the Tulare County Republican Central committee, this week announced that the committee, at a meeting held in Visalia Monday night, gave its unanimous endorsement to Roscoe L. Patterson for Assemblyman from Tulare and Kings counties.

He states that the committee feels Mr. Patterson's long residence in Tulare county as a businessman and rancher and his 16 years as a Tulare county supervisor well qualify him to represent the people of Tulare and Kings counties as Assemblyman.

Mr. Patterson was elected president of the California Supervisors association and served with credit on state-wide projects. He is familiar with county and state government through personal experience.

The committee believes that most important of all is Mr. Patterson's firm belief in constitutional government, private enterprise and economy in all branches of government, according to Mr. Bradley. Mr. Patterson is firmly opposed to the encroachment of federal government and states rights. He recognizes California's astonishing progress to date as having been the result of state and local planning by Californians considering California problems with faith in California's future.

The committee believes the most pressing problems of the future are having enough water and protecting water rights, protecting states and individual rights, representing agriculture, and the elimination of all waste in government. Mr. Patterson has pledged himself to work for these aims and the Tulare County Central committee has voted to endorse him and to work for his election as Assemblyman from Tulare and Kings Counties.

Wireworms may also be important to cotton growers. Lindane treated cotton seed is recommended for use in fields known to contain wireworms. Consult your local gin manager or seedman about getting seed treated.

September 25, 1891

The sudden death of A. O. Thoms at Bakersfield last week brings to mind the good old days of the Overland stage, of which for some year, Mr. Thoms was manager. It also reminds us of other "characters" one way and another connected with the business. We came down from San Francisco, via Gilroy, to Visalia, in '71 for the first time, riding the top seat of the stage with R. E. Hyde. When we got to Cold Slough at night, everybody was hungry, having had nothing since we left Gilroy in the morning. We were to have a treat of fresh fish, and we got 'em — with heads, fins, tails and insides, all complete, just as they came wiggling out of the water. Mr. Thoms was a kind-hearted man and though he was hard to impose on, he frequently yielded to the better side of his nature and gave a lift to many a leg-weary wayfarer — there were no tramps in those days.

PLANS PROPOSED FOR CVP PURCHASE

Six different plans whereby the state of California might purchase the Central Valley's project from the federal government were outlined this week by State Engineer A. D. Edmonston to the State Water Project authority.

The plans call for state bond issues to finance the deal but are set up so that the state of California would show a profit at the end of 50 years. Three of the plans propose that users of CVP water become stockholders in the project, underwriting a percentage of the costs in return for permanent rights to water.

F. R. Farnsworth SAYS . . .

"We've used the Oliver No. 8 Fully Automatic baler for two years and we plan to continue to use this baler, because we have found that it is simple to operate, dependable and does a clean pickup job in the field.

"With one-man operation, the baler is economical from a labor standpoint, yet it works fast and clean in either alfalfa or oat hay. No wires are clipped; no wire tips get into the hay and that's a really important factor for any livestock man to consider.

"On our AceHi ranch we've tried several makes of balers, but we've settled on the Oliver No. 8 Automatic. Last year we put 10,000 bales through this machine and now we're ready to go again on a fine crop of oat hay in the foothills, and alfalfa in the valley.

"Our experience in the field has sold us on the Oliver Automatic Baler."

The AceHi home spread of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Farnsworth is located between Fountain Springs and White River and also includes mountain range and valley farm land. At present, AceHi ranks second in the state of California in the number of both Horned and Polled Hereford cattle registered annually . . . We at Farmers Tractor and Equipment company are proud to be able to serve this great ranch — and the many other ranches in our southern Tulare county agricultural area.

TULARE COUNTY HISTORICAL SKETCHES

Courtesy Tulare County Chamber of Commerce

In 1776 Catholic Father Garcia came as far north into Tulare County as the present sites of Ducor and Terra Bella for purposes of converting the Indians.

After 1825 fur traders and trappers led by such men as Jedediah Smith, Captain Boonville, Joseph Walker and Fremont came through the valley.

Settlers, hearing of the great stories of California began moving westward. Ox-drawn covered wagon trains were a familiar sight in our country during this period.

School Vote

Earlimart elementary school district voters last week approved a 75 cent tax increase, approved acceptance of a $515,000 bond allocation by the state for construction of additional classrooms, but turned down a proposal for district issuance of $57,000 worth of bonds.

Awards Made Strathmore Banquet; High Students In Speech Contest; Little League Baseball Organized

By Dick Berryhill
(March 27, 1952)

About 150 people turned out for the fifth annual basketball banquet last Friday night at the Strathmore Grammar school auditorium. The banquet was sponsored by the student council of the Strathmore high school to honor their basketball teams.

Feature of the evening was a talk by J. Flint Hanner, nationally known track coach from Fresno State college. Mr. Hanner spoke of athletics in general as well as giving a brief history of the Olympic games.

Awards were made to the three basketball teams with the championship C class team receiving silver basketballs. The presentations were made by Coach Phil Lindgren for the B class and C class and Coach Dick Berryhill for the A class.

Musical entertainment was furnished by songs by Harold Smith, accompanied by Mrs. Pauline Aldridge at the piano. Cecil Harris was master of ceremonies for the evening.

SPARTANS LOSE

The Strathmore Spartan baseball team dropped its first league game of the season last Friday afternoon when they journeyed to Orosi to meet the Orosi Cardinals. The final score was 13 to 2 in favor of the hard-hitting Cardinals.

Outstanding performance of the game was turned in by George Millhorn, pitcher for Orosi, who limited the Spartans to two hits while striking out 19. Strathmore's two hits were by third baseman Ronald Goings and first baseman Bill Murdoch. Roy Britt was the starting pitcher for the Spartans but was relieved by Waymon Roberson in the 6th inning when he developed a sore hand.

This afternoon the local team travels to Woodlake to meet the Tigers who were champions of the league last year.

TROPHY WON

The newly formed Strathmore High School Hi-Y club brought home the consolation trophy from the county-wide basketball tournament which was held at Visalia last Saturday. The local Hi-Y club lost only to Dinuba and won games from Porterville and twice from Visalia. Robie Eastlack is sponsor of the group.

LITTLE LEAGUE BALL

Monache Sausages

By
LORETTA and ROLLA BISHOP

Well, we've done it!
We didn't rush right out and do it; we thought it over for a long time, then we decided to go ahead.

So we might as well tell you that we have opened a Monache Sausage Kitchen depot at Pat's Poultry, 307 North "D" street, in Porterville, and if it is convenient for you to drop by Pat's, you can get Monache link and bulk sausage there and you can leave your order for any other Monache product you might want — a quality pork roast, some luscious pork chops, spare ribs, side meat, maybe even a hog's head (if you want some old-fashioned head cheese) or some pork lard.

You know we looked around quite a little before we decided to bring Monache pork products to town. We talked to Pat Stater, he's the head man at Pat's Poultry, and we decided we liked his setup; it's clean, convenient for shopping and in a free parking area.

And Pat also sells quality products — fine poultry products, including those new and delicious Northwesters. We sort of felt that quality Monache pork would fit right in — so we're there and we invite you to drop in at Pat's for either pork or poultry.

But don't get the idea that the Sausage Kitchen out at Monache farm is being changed. No sireee. We're still selling Monache pork here at the ranch and we're still delivering on Fridays and Tuesdays. And, of course, Monache Sausage and Monache pork cuts are still the same quality buys.

It's just that we thought we might make it a little easier to shop, a little easier to get your Monache Sausage if we had a Porterville depot. That's what we have, and we hope you like it. So now our address, in addition to being Mulberry and Prospect is 307 N. "D" street, Porterville. You can still telephone us at 168-W and we still want you to drive out to Monache Farm and look around during this wonderful spring weather.

We Only Heard

By BILL RODGERS

THE BOARD of directors has acted, Monte Gifford, at Springville, has accepted the implied challenge of Allan Choates, of Porterville, and there will be a class for monkeys in the 1952 Porterville Junior Livestock show May 22, 23 and 24. But Monte warns that the ancestry of his monkey goes back to the cave man, and he foresees little difficulty in defeating Allan in the show ring. But now the question — where in the world do you get a monkey judge?

OF COURSE Monte Gifford isn't really too much concerned with livestock shows right at the moment. He's spending his days and nights telling everyone who will listen about the great Springville Rodeo and Frontier Days celebration that is coming up April 19 and 20. There will be big doin's at Springville then, what with a dance the night of April 19 (Billy Lam and his band will play) and what with a great big assist from Hollywood movie celebrities, who come to Springville because the rodeo is a benefit for the Springville sanatorium rehabilitation program, and also just because they like to come to Springville. Of course the big feature is the rodeo, April 20, and that's where Don Gill comes into the picture. Don is not only arena director for the show, but he's the man who has developed the facilities for the Springville show on Gill property along the Balch Park road. Always offering a beautiful spring setting for the rodeo, the Gill arena this year, surrounded by green, flower-covered foothills, with a backdrop of high Sierra snow, should really be something to see. And to pass along Monte's advise, why don't you plan to make a day of it — picnic lunch and all — April 20.

AMONG THIS and that, we see that taxes are now approaching 35 per cent of the national income. 'Tain't good. And devaluating the dollar through inflation, making more volume of money to pay higher taxes only moves things along toward a point of collapse... See that our old alma mater, the University of Kansas won the national collegiate basketball championship. Kansas and Phog Allen are always something to contend with on the hardwood. ... Our congratulations to Andy Morrison for his work during the past three years in the Porterville chamber of commerce. Andy did some things, didn't do other things, but in one field he was tops — industrial relations. Just when his program was on the point of paying off, Porterville let it's chamber of commerce go into temporary collapse... Those business men who say — and unfortunately too many of them do — that they'll contribute to the chamber of commerce after the chamber brings an industry in, probably also argue that they should bet on a horse after it wins. Which makes us wonder about people, ourselves included.

Cotton planting tests show highest yields are obtained from 60,000 to 80,000 plants per acre. More plants per acre will not increase yield, while fewer plants will probably reduce yields. With 4,000 seeds per pound, this would mean a planting rate of about 20 lbs. per acre.

FINS FOR FEATHERS.

By Phil The Forester

Warm weather is bringing out the warm water fishermen for black bass, bluegill, crappie, catfish, etc., and generally speaking, the fish have been quite cooperative. Catfish are funny ducks as they do most of their biting when the water is a little high and roly as it is now in many cases.

Try the mud ball bait trick for catfish or any kind of fish, trout included when the season opens that is. Just hook on a lively worm, mix wet earth to a stiff paste and wrap the wiggler up. Drop this gob of goop in a deep hole and sit quietly while the current washes off the worm which will emerge by degrees with a hulu motion. No self respecting fish will resist such a tempting dish.

Wardens report Tulare county is producing some good warm water fishing, mostly on the small size although one 4 1/2 pound bass was checked. Fish reportedly from the Mendota pool have arrived at the Crescent weir, states a Kings county warden.

Carp With Bow and Arrow

The Robin Hood boys are expecting the carp to start their spring spawning activities any day now at which time they will be after their special kind of fishing fun . . . carp with bow and arrow, the arrow attached to the bow with a fishing line.

Near Whites bridge out of Mendota, bass and crappie fishing has been good except on windy days and when the water comes up too fast. Catfishing however has not been so good.

If you like crawfish, Whites bridge is the place to go as there's a lot of big pinchers in the area. They make good bass bait but a better table delicacy.

Millerton lake has been producing some nice bass and bluegill. Last Saturday was reported to be the best black bass day in two years. Poppers on a fly rod are consistently the best lure for Millerton bass.

Last Sunday, Walter Burghold, Reedley, caught a 16 pound salmon out of Monterey bay where the fish shouldn't have been until about May 1. This is the day we picked to call on Walt so now we know where he was and what he was up to.

Although the fish and game department reorganization plans have been released, they are not in final form. The area proposed to be under the jurisdiction of the Fresno regional office includes Tuolumne, Stanislaus, Mariposa, Merced, Madera, Fresno, Tulare, Kings and Kern counties. Some of us had hoped that each of the five regional offices would include the mountains, valley, coastal area and ocean for what would appear to be good for personnel intraining. In reply to my gripe on the subject, Fish and Game Deputy Director W. T. Shannon wrote:

"If each region had these features it would certainly provide all around training for personnel. We have not dropped this idea and will give it serious consideration in the future."

San Joaquin Valley committee of Ducks Unlimited will hold its annual spring rally with speaker and motion pictures at the Fresno Memorial auditorium starting at

Employment Office Asks Farm Workers To Register For Jobs

Continued warm weather will mean increased farm activity in this area in the very near future according to Gerald G. Schubert, manager of the Porterville office of the California department of employment.

Due to the wet weather of the past few weeks many farm operations are behind schedule and many more workers will be needed to help in the very important job of getting the spring farm work under way.

Farmers are being urged to grow increasingly larger crops of food and fiber in order to meet the needs of the defense program. This means more farm workers will be needed if this goal is to be met.

The local office of the department of employment located at 302 South Main, Porterville, is accepting applications for farm work. Mr. Schubert strongly urges that anyone interested in farm employment register now.

8 p.m., April 7. The public is invited and there is no charge.

Errors Costly

Two errors in the last of the ninth inning when the score was tied 7-7 was the deciding factor as the Strathmore high school baseball team dropped its second league contest to the Woodlake Tigers last Friday afternoon in Woodlake.

The Tigers capitalized on six Strathmore errors and eight hits off pitcher Roy Britt to take a 7 to 0 lead in the third inning. After the third inning the Spartans settled down without any more errors until the ninth inning and Britt allowed only one hit the rest of the game.

The Spartans tied the score in the ninth inning only to see Woodlake score the winning run in the last of the ninth. Four of the Tigers' runs were unearned. Britt, Ronald Goings and Raymond Foster each got two hits for Strathmore.

Friday afternoon the Spartans meet the Lindsay Cardinals on the local diamond with the game starting at 3 p.m. The Cardinals won from Avenal last week by a score of 6 to 5.

THE AIR AGE COMING? MAYBE WE'VE TURNED THE CORNER

Porterville, like most towns of its size located somewhat off the beaten path, has had its troubles finding a place in the air age, but perhaps this part of the county is now over the hump.

At least it appears that the F. n H. Air Freight line is going to make regular calls — two a day — at the Porterville municipal airport, and if this company can make its calls pay, a worthwhile service will be added to the community.

We can visualize considerable general benefit from a fast freight service between Porterville, Los Angeles and San Francisco and if this air freight run is successful, the door to passenger service by air might be more easily opened.

It behooves ranchers and business men of the community to give at least moral support to this new venture and, more important, to use the service when it can be profitably used. Porterville — in fact the entire southeastern county area — has a great potential asset in its fine municipal field. Perhaps the F. n H. service will provide a first step toward making the field a real asset to the community.

Homecoming

A community barbecue, a folk dance and a ballroom dance are among the events that will feature the third annual Strathmore Homecoming day program, May 9. Committee in charge of the day is composed of Bruce Ward, Merritt Anderson and Charles Solomon.

LABOR DROP

A seasonal labor drop of 9,000 workers in the San Joaquin valley during the past two week was reported this week by the department of employment. Total farm workers now employed in the valley is now 63,000.

ROUNDUP DRAWS

cellaneous, $140.79 and insurance, $145.17.

Actually, the Roundup showed a small profit in its first year; since that time the show has lost money each year, the Saddle club underwriting this loss in order to keep the show going as a Porterville community event.

Major expenses, such as purse money, rodeo stock and featured events cannot be cut to any great extent if the show is to maintain its "big time" calibre, Saddle club members point out. Not shown in the expense account at all is a great amount of donated labor in connection with the actual staging of the show.
